

News Release
FOR IMMEDIATE DISTRIBUTION
Media Contact:
G. Frank Teas
CBTBE Corporation
M: 603-882-6507
gfrankteas@cbtbe.com

CBTBE Corporation Announces the Elections of New Directors

Recently-formed company envisions developing a bank to serve small and medium-sized businesses, professionals and retail consumers.

NASHUA, NH (November 1, 2018) – The CBTBE Corporation (CBTBE) announced today that Tracy S. (Hatch) Hall, Loyd W. Dollins, Alan J. Kirby and David J. Petropulos were recently elected to the Board of Directors.

“We have continued our commitment of diversity with the election of these directors as they represent a spectrum of industry and thought,” said G. Frank Teas, President & CEO of The CBTBE Corporation. “I am excited to work with our directorate on establishing a community bank to be located in Nashua.”

Tracy (Hatch) Hall currently serves as President and Chief Executive Officer of The Nashua Chamber of Commerce. Her prior employment experience includes government, not for profit, and most recently as a Product Manager for a Bedford, New Hampshire-based software company. She has also served on the board of directors of the Huntington, the Hunt Home, the Adult Learning Center, Nashua’s Destination Downtown (now Great American Downtown), and Bishop Guertin High School, and as President of the Board of the New Hampshire Flames AAU Girls Basketball League.

Loyd W. Dollins has a long history in community banking. Mr. Dollins retired as President and Chief Executive Officer of a 129 year old community bank founded in Colebrook, New Hampshire in January 2017 after 17 years at the bank. He also helped organize a community bank in Florida and served as its Chief Executive Officer (Plaza Bank of Miami) for 13 years. In addition to his executive experience, Mr. Dollins served for many years in commercial lending. He has previously served as Trustee of the Trust Funds for the town of Bedford, New Hampshire, as well as on the boards of the Souhegan Valley Chamber of Commerce, the Milford Industrial Development Corporation, and Souhegan Valley Resources.

Alan Kirby brings a high level of security, risk management and information technology experience to the Board. Prior to his retirement, he served as Vice President, Engineering, at BitSight, a security rating and risk management company located in Cambridge, Massachusetts and was previously an executive with Cisco Systems, Okena, and Raptor Systems. Mr. Kirby has held various research and technical leadership positions at MIT Lincoln Laboratory and Digital Equipment Corporation.

David J. Petropulos is a certified public accountant and the Director of Finance of Etchstone Properties in Nashua, New Hampshire. Prior to joining Etchstone, Dave was previously CFO of MTS Services, Inc., and a manager with the Manchester CPA firm, Howe, Riley, Howe. He also has served as treasurer and director for several not for profit organizations.

“The addition of these individuals to our directorate further strengthens our team,” said John P. Stabile, II, Chairman of The CBTBE Corporation. “We purposely sought out experts in IT and Accounting and Alan (IT) and David’s (CPA) industry experience will be invaluable for our board.”

CBTBE is the seed company that will shepherd the development of a new community bank, which will be headquartered in Nashua and serve small to medium-sized businesses, professionals and consumers in the greater Nashua area.

The new directors join Messrs. Teas and Stabile and other CBTBE organizers, including Lorin Rydstrom, Jack Law and Gerry Gartner of Hollis; Peter Nash of Hudson; and Jack Tulley and Peter Tamposi of Nashua.

For information about The CBTBE Corporation, visit www.cbtbe.com.